

Fall Consortium Topical Dinners

Topical dinners will take place Friday evening after our reception at the following seven St. Louis restaurants. The restaurants and topics are listed on sign-up sheets that will be available throughout the day Friday. There will be space for three groups of eight people (exception: The Clark Street Grill will have two groups of eight) with each group discussing a different topic. Please sign up for your choice in a timely fashion to assist us with reservations and to ensure a spot at your first choice. Seating is limited and you will be responsible for the cost of dinner. Several restaurants are within walking distance. Transportation will be provided to those not within walking distance. This event is being coordinated by Destination St. Louis.

Mike Shannon's

Charlie Gitto's Downtown

Charlie Gitto and his family have been serving up fine Italian cuisine in downtown St. Louis since 1974. Located conveniently between Busch Stadium and the Edward Jones Dome, it's no wonder some of sports' greatest heroes have dined here. Our menu features Italian classics like Pasta Messina and Veal Nunzio, and specialty items like Gnocchi and Penne Bellini. We also feature blackboard specials that often include Pan-Seared Tilapia and a Pasta of the Month. Desserts include such delectables as Spumoni, Tiramisu, and Triple Fudge Cake. (Walking distance)

The Pepper Lounge

The Pepper Lounge is the only true retro lounge in St. Louis! It stays true to the lounge tradition of the 1950's, when lounges were warm, inviting and full of life. Housed in a 2 story brick turn of the century building guests have 3 different area to select to dine in; the patio, the lounge or the restaurant. Serving American fare ranging from steaks to fresh fish, and has a sprinkling of creative signature dishes like the Chicken Chocolate Eliche, a chocolate eliche noodle with charbroiled chicken topped with a chipotle cream sauce.
