SUBMISSION TYPE
[Type of session, e.g., Poster, Debate, Symposium]

TITLE
[85-character title, including spaces]

SHORTENED TITLE
[50-character shortened title for the grid version of the program that accurately and succinctly represents the session. The maximum length is 50 characters, including spaces. Feel free to use common abbreviations and ampersands. This is not required for posters.]

ABSTRACT
[600-character abstract, including spaces. Abstracts will be published in the conference program and online application. Good abstracts provide a summary of the session and should describe the level of sophistication of the content for the intended audience. Consider using terms such as "introductory," "intermediate," or "advanced."]

CITATION
[APA Citation for session. DO NOT PROVIDE FOR POSTER SESSIONS. Details on formatting available here.]

WORD COUNT
[Word count of the full text of the proposal. References, tables, and figures do not count toward the word limit, but appendices do count toward the limit. Please refer to the Call for Proposals for word count requirements and maximums.]

[Reproducible Research and/or Multidisciplinary Content Explanations: If your session includes reproducible research or multi-disciplinary content, you can provide the explanation here with a maximum of 500-characters. This description does not count toward the word limit. Describe how your session qualifies based on the guidelines for reproducible research or guidelines for multi-disciplinary content. All submission types are eligible for these designations.]

Formatting Reminder
1-inch margins
Between a 10- and 12-point font
Arial, Helvetica, or Times New Roman font
Word document (.doc or .docx)