Click "Nominate Now"

The screenshot shows the details for the "Hebl Grant for Reducing Gender Inequities in the Workplace". The sidebar on the left is the same as in the previous screenshot. The main content area shows the grant title and a description: "The Hebl Grant for Reducing Gender Inequities in the Workplace is for a gender-related research project for a master's thesis (or an equivalent) or a doctoral dissertation. The maximum grant amount for the Hebl Grant is $3,000." A red button labeled "Nominate Now" is highlighted with an orange circle. Below this, the section "General Procedures" is visible, starting with "Applicants must submit a research grant proposal using the form for focus on extending and broadening theoretical and empirical knowledge. Grants will be given to projects that focus on reducing the inequities that exist in the workforce in the U.S. or in any other country globally. The research project must be proposed by a graduate-level SIOP member (or equivalent) or dissertation. Postdoctoral students and faculty members are eligible to apply."
