

SIOP UN COMMITTEE

SIOP is a registered NGO with Special Consultative Status with the United Nations (UN) Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).

WHO WE ARE

The Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology (SIOP) United Nations Committee is a team of I-O psychology professionals that seeks to bring theory, research, and practice of work psychology to support the achievement of United Nations mandates.

WHAT IS I-O PSYCHOLOGY?

I-O psychology is a dynamic and growing field that addresses workplace issues at the individual and organizational level. I-O psychologists apply research that improves the well-being and performance of people and the organizations that employ them.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

I-O psychology includes research and practice in areas such as:

- AI and its role in talent management
- Diversity, equity, and inclusion
- Employee engagement
- Global/Cross-cultural work issues
- Leadership development
- Multi-rater feedback
- Organizational surveys
- Performance management
- Recruitment, assessment, and selection
- Rewards and recognition

STRATEGIC GOALS

- Support the UN through high-quality work psychology solutions to address humanitarian and development issues with the United Nations common system
- Create and support the infrastructure necessary to provide the UN with SIOP expertise and resources
- Form multi-stakeholder partnerships within the UN to identify and pursue potential projects where SIOP members can apply work psychology knowledge to aid the UN

RESOURCES

Examples of what the SIOP UN Committee can offer:

- Expert speakers and panelists
- White papers on relevant issues
- Brainstorming sessions

FOR REFERENCES AND MORE INFORMATION:
www.siop.org/United-Nations

SOCIETY for INDUSTRIAL and ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

UNITED NATIONS
COMMITTEE